Dear Bob:

In response to your memorandum dated November 29, 1995, the following terms apply to the purchase of the 1930-S $20 St. Gaudens Double Eagle for $100,000, graded by PCGS as MS65 (herein the "Coin").

1. In the event title to the Coin is not transferred and it is returned to you before July 15, 1996, all moneys received from Blanchard in excess of the $25,000 non-refundable deposit will be returned to Blanchard.
2. In the event title to the Coin has not transferred by July 15, 1996 and no moneys have been received by you from Blanchard, Blanchard agrees to pay to you $25,000, but may instead of paying said $25,000 exercise the option to purchase the Coin outright for Blanchard's own inventory at a total cost of $100,000, as stipulated in Blanchard's Supplier Agreement, clause #7. Blanchard may also, at this time, elect to return the $25,000 and the Coin to you.
3. July 15, 1996 is the final payment date.
4. According to the Supplier Agreement, clause #7, sentence #5 states that "...subsequent payments made by the client will be retained by Blanchard until such time as Blanchard has received an amount equal to the difference between its cost from Supplier and its sale price to its client."
5. Heritage will hold the coin until it is paid for in full by the client, at which time Heritage will make final payment to you.

Please call me with any questions.

Very truly yours,
